The Adventures of Norm

May 3, 2011

By alum125

Award-winning humor-fantasy author, Norm Cowie, BBA '81, (Haworth College of Business), has been extremely prolific in his second career as a writer, penning The Adventures of Guy ... written by a guy (probably), The Next Adventures of Guy ... more wackiness, The Guy'd Book, Fang Face (as if being a teenager doesn't suck enough), and Werewolf and contributing to the anthologies In the Heat of the Moment and Missing. He is the WINNER OF THE PREDATORS & EDITOR'S CHOICE AWARD FOR BEST SCI-FI FANTASY.

AND his work has been compared with The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy and books by Christopher Moore and Erma Bombeck. Pretty elite company!!

Norm is also Vice President of Finance at Evergreen Oak Electric Supply & Sales Co. and has written several articles on business topics for the layperson, with a particular focus in construction law, mechanics lien, and credit.

Both his career as a VP and his writing keep him extremely busy, though he jokes, "My family is under the impression that my primary occupation is drinking coffee."

Pick up Norm's books or visit his webpage for a light-hearted romp that will ake you say, "Go Broncos!"
